. Admission to this degree program is conditional for the first year. Continuation in the program is dependent upon advice of the applied teacher and departmental chair after assessment of performance talent, achievement and general musicianship.
Six (6) successful semesters of MUS 101 Recital Assembly are required. To successfully complete the course each semester the student must gain credit for 10 approved recitals and have no more than one absence from required assembly programs.

. Applied music is studied at two or three credits in the first two semesters and three credits in semesters three through eight. Periodic jury and proficiency examinations are required. A half-recital (MUS 398) is required in the junior year and a full recital (MUS 498) is required in the senior year.
Concurrent with each semester of applied study, students are required to enroll in a major performing ensemble involving a student's applied major instrument. Additional semesters of study require concurrent participation in major ensembles.

All applied lessons require a "C" or better to continue in the sequence.
MUS 170, MUS 173, MUS 270, MUS 273 must be taken in sequence, with a "C" or better to continue in the sequence.
