- Next Wednesday at 6:00 pm, there will be a Diwali celebration in Winslow, with fireworks at 7.
- Retail takeover at Tres: Burrito Shack
- On Monday, the semi-annual dining survey will come out and it will be posted on social media. Participants will be entered to win a Roku TV.

Auxiliary Services, Mr. David Looney:

- Recommend ideas for the future of dining services.
- P3 update: at this point, we are just waiting for some pricing to come back to be reviewed.

Advisor to SGA & Student Organizations, Mrs. Jeanie Morgan:

- We think we will be in the new office by Christmas or right after.
- At Christmas, they are starting to tear up the floor in Curris, therefore, no meetings are allowed to be held in the Barkley from November 20th through February.
- This year's homecoming parade will be larger than usual with it being Murray State's centennial year and it being an election year. Information will be given out at next Wednesday's meeting to give everyone assignments for the parade—this meeting is extra important.
 - No candy can be thrown during the parade, it must be handed out directly (for safety reasons).

Center for Student Involvement Office Coordinator, Mr. Kade Gambill:

- Contact to get your headshot taken if you haven't already.
- There was a mandatory meeting for all homecoming float chairs on Wednesday night—if an organization was not in attendance, they are not allowed to participate in the parade.

Motion to adjourn passed, read by the president and seconded by the advisor
