1. The first step in the process of identifying a problem is to define the problem clearly. This involves identifying the symptoms of the problem and determining the underlying causes. Once the problem has been defined, the next step is to develop a plan of action. This plan should outline the steps that will be taken to solve the problem and should be realistic and achievable. The final step in the process is to implement the plan and monitor the results. If the problem is not solved, the plan should be revised and the process repeated.

1. Introduction

The purpose of this document is to provide a comprehensive overview of the project's objectives, scope, and key findings. This report is intended for the project stakeholders and serves as a reference for future work.
